SICK LEAVE HARRASSMENT

Bethlehem Hospital

A number of Calvary employees have been called while on sick leave. The employer does not have the right to be contacting you while you are off work.

You also do not have to provide any medical documentation to show that you are fit to come back to work. After all, the fact that you're back should be evidence enough of that shouldn't it?

If you have any queries about your sick leave rights, please don't hesitate to contact your site Organiser or the union office on (03) 9341 3300.
